

Month at a Glance

From Greenwich to Old Lyme

EDITOR'S CHOICE

Duffy Craftsmen
home overlooking
Greenwich Cove

23RD ANNUAL HOBI AWARDS

On Wednesday, November 16, more than 700 housing-industry professionals will gather at the Aqua Turf Club in Southington for the 23rd annual HOBI Awards with CTC&G as the proud media sponsor. The HOBI Awards is the largest builder awards program in the country and is sponsored by the Home Builders & Remodelers Association of Connecticut. The HOBI Awards is Connecticut's most prestigious recognition of excellence in home construction. This year's winners include this $11 million spec home overlooking Greenwich Cove in Old Greenwich by Duffy Craftsmen.

Wednesday, November 16, 5:30—9:30 p.m.
Aqua Turf Country Club, Southington. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit hbact.org/hobiawards.

"NEW SEASON/NEW WORKS"

AT SM HOME ART GALLERY

Sandra Morgan Interiors and SM Home Gallery is pleased to announce its fall 2016 group show, "New Season/New Works," featuring a fresh collection of paintings, drawings, hand-pulled prints and photographs from its talented gallery artists. Featured artists include Helen Cantrell, Paul Favello, Kerri Rosenthal, Louis Shields, Rachel Volpone and many more. Opening reception, Thursday, November 3, 5:30—7:30 p.m. Show will run through December. SM Home Gallery, 70 Arch St, Greenwich. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday, 10 a.m.—5:30 p.m., and Saturday, 11 a.m.—5 p.m. For more information, call 203-629-8121 or visit sandhamorganinteriors.com.

AMERICAN ARTISAN SHOW AT THE WILTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Celebrating its 31st year, this nationally recognized show is held on the grounds of the Wilton Historical Society and features more than 35

American artisans from across the country, showing their beautifully crafted work in the society's charming 18th- and 19th-century buildings. Handmade rugs, furniture, textiles, baskets, floor cloths, tavern signs, paintings, jewelry, botanicals, photography and tramp art will be on display. Proceeds benefit the society. Preview party, Friday, November 4, 6—9 p.m., $100 per person. The show will run Saturday, November 5, 10 a.m.—5 p.m. through Sunday, November 6, 10 a.m.—4 p.m., $10 per person. Wilton Historical Society, 224 Danbury Rd, Wilton. For more information or to make a preview party reservation, call 203-762-7257 or visit wiltonhistorical.org

ANNUAL VICTORIAN TEA AT LOCKWOOD-MATHEWS MANSION MUSEUM

The Lockwood-Mathews Mansion Museum will host its annual Victorian Tea featuring a discussion led by textiles, fashion merchandising and design expert Susan J. Jerome and a formal traditional English tea. The discussion titled,

"From Downton Abbey to Camelot," will explore the dramatic changes in women's clothing in the 20th century as the role of women in society continued to change. Sunday, November 6, 2—4 p.m. Lockwood-Mathews Mansion Museum, 295 West Ave, Norwalk. Tickets are $35 for members and $45 for nonmembers. For more information and to purchase tickets, call 203-838-9799 or visit lockwoodmathewsmansion.com.

HOUSATONIC VALLEY ASSOCIATION BENEFIT AUCTION

The Housatonic Valley Association will host its 26th anniversary auction to benefit the environment and honor auction benefit chair Christine Baranski. There will be a silent auction, music and a reception followed by a live auction with HGTV's Tim Luke and Greg Strahm. Sunday, November 6, 1 p.m. Washington Primary School, 11 School St, Washington Depot. Tickets start at $75. For more information and to purchase tickets, call 860-672-6678 or visit bvatoday.org

To list your upcoming event in our next issue, contact Stephanie Yalamas at syalamas@candg.com